

Come and Be the King and Queen of Singer Castle!

Singer Castle on Dark Island is world-renowned for its spectacular architecture, secret passageways, 100-year old furnishings, and its rich history as the seasonal “hunting lodge” of Frederick G. Bourne, the fifth president of the Singer Sewing Machine Company. When you stay in the Royal Suite for the evening, you have the privilege of enjoying the splendors of the most unique accommodations in the 1000 Islands.

The Royal Suite, which overlooks both the US and Canadian shorelines, includes a master bedroom with California King canopy bed, Queen-size sleeper sofa and over-sized upholstered chair, oriental rug, fireplace, armoire with TV/DVD, elegant turn-of-the century-styled writing table, leather chaise lounge and a cozy corner to savor an early evening cocktail before a breathtaking Canadian sunset. The second bedroom in the suite contains a Queen-size canopy bed, a Victorian style double bed and two cozy chairs to relax in. The luxury tile bathroom, which also overlooks the American channel, is equipped with period style fixtures and a large shower with a seat. Tucked in next to the bathroom is a butler’s pantry complete with microwave, coffee service and a refrigerator.

The winner Royal Suite Gift Certificate may check-in at 3 p.m. After check-in they will receive a guided tour to the castle, the island and out buildings including the secret passageways and tunnels. All set ups and a gas grill are available for them to prepare their dinner in the evening. Guests may bring beer and wine if they choose. After dinner in the evening guests have use of the castle to relax and enjoy. A continental breakfast will be served in the morning before checkout at 11 a.m.

The Gift Certificate is valid for an overnight stay for two during September and October 2016 and May and June 2017. Additional Guests may be added to the reservation at a cost of $75 each plus tax. Transportation to the island is not included but can be arranged through Schermerhorn Harbor Marina.
